Upper Geyser Basin, July 10 1896

Dear Louis - I am once more enjoying the marvels of the Yellowstone Will be here about six days in all. Hagen has studied the region five years & is of course a fine guide. The whole company is good - the best imaginable.
The flowers & Geysers are in their glory. From here we go to Helena & thence to the North Columbia.

I hope to hear from you at Helena. I shall give you a new address. Hope all are well. Can't guess when I'll be home. Love to all - in haste Ever truly Yours
